The CIA Estimated Foreign Positive Intelligence Cost Report

Attached is the CIA report on estimated foreign positive intelligence costs. It will be noted that distribution was not possible between positive intelligence and counter intelligence. This was due primarily to the fact that a substantial amount of counter intelligence is a by-product of foreign intelligence operations and is not separately identifiable. We are, therefore, submitting only exhibits A and C and have not included exhibits B and D. Where certain items do not have narrative explanations (i.e., exhibit D), the omission is the result of not having received material from the offices involved.
